

Vision and Screen Time

Tablets and smart phone screens emit blue light.

This kind of light can have an impact on your eyes and wake/sleep cycle. The increased exposure of blue light at a young age can increase the risks of developing age related eye health issues.